PREAMBLE

The land on which we gather is the traditional territory of the Wolastoqiyik, Wəlastəkewiyik /Maliseet whose ancestors along with the Mi'Kmaq/Mi'kmaw and Passamaquoddy/ Peskotomuhkati Tribes/Nations signed Peace and Friendship Treaties with the British Crown in the 1700s.

ARTICLE 1 PURPOSE

1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to promote and maintain harmonious and mutually beneficial relationships between the Employer, the PSAC and the employees and to set forth herein certain terms and conditions of employment upon which agreement has been reached through collective bargaining.

ARTICLE 2 RECOGNITION

- 2.01 St. Thomas University (“Employer”) recognizes the Public Service Alliance of Canada (“PSAC”) as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Employer covered by the most current certificate issued by the New Brunswick Labour and Employment Board and attached at Appendix “A”.
- 2.02 For greater clarity, "employee" shall mean a member of the bargaining unit described in Clause 2.01.

ARTICLE 3 MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 3.01 Except to the extent provided herein, this Collective Agreement in no way restricts the authority of the University.
- 3.02 The rights set forth in the Article, this Collective Agreement as a whole and those otherwise retained by the University shall be exercised without discrimination and in good faith, and will not be exercised in an arbitrary manner.
- 3.03 The Union recognizes that the University has established policies and procedures which apply to employees. Subject to the meaningful and constructive consultation with the Union prior to doing so, the University shall have the sole and exclusive discretion to modify, create and implement policies and procedures on the condition that they do not conflict with the Collective Agreement, in which case the provisions of the Collective Agreement will prevail and be followed.

ARTICLE 4 UNION SECURITY

- 4.01 a) Subject to the provisions of this Article, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the monthly membership dues from the pay of all employees in the bargaining unit. Where an employee does not have sufficient earnings in respect of any monthly period to permit deductions made under this Article, the Employer shall not be obligated to make such deduction from subsequent salary. All employees, as a condition of employment, must become and remain members in good standing of the Union. For new employees, membership shall commence on the initial date of employment.
- b) The Employer agrees to make deductions for PSAC initiation fees, insurance premiums and assessments on the production of appropriate documentation.
- 4.02 For the purpose of applying this Article, deductions from pay for each employee in respect of each calendar month will start with the first full calendar month to the extent that earnings are available.
- 4.03 The PSAC shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized monthly deduction to be checked off for each employee.
- 4.04 The amounts deducted in accordance with Clause 4.01 shall be remitted to the Director, Finance Branch of the PSAC no later than the 25th of the month following that in which the deductions were made and shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each employee and the deductions made on the employee's behalf.
- 4.05 The PSAC agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article, except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer limited to the amount actually involved in the error.

ARTICLE 5 JOB SECURITY

- 5.01 No bargaining unit employee will be laid off or have their normal hours of work reduced as a result of the Employer contracting out bargaining unit work.
- 5.02 No bargaining unit employee will be laid off or have their normal hours of work reduced as a result of a non-bargaining unit employee performing bargaining unit work.
- 5.03 No employee shall be required or permitted to enter into a written or verbal agreement with the Employer which may conflict with the terms of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS

- 6.01 There shall be no strikes or lock-outs during the life of this Collective Agreement.
- 6.02 Where an employee expresses a concern for their safety in attempting to cross a picket-line on the Employer's premises, the Employer will ensure a safe access to the workplace.
- 6.03 If employees are prevented from performing their duties because of a strike or lock-out on the premises of another employer, the employees shall report the matter to the Employer, and the Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that such employees are employed elsewhere, so that they shall receive their regular pay and benefits to which they would normally be entitled.
- 6.04 The Employer shall not assign an employee any work exclusively performed by employees of St. Thomas University faculty bargaining units, the existing St. Thomas University Student Union PSAC bargaining unit, the existing CUPE bargaining units (Locals 3372 and 5083), or any bargaining units at the University of New Brunswick, who are on strike or locked out.
- 6.05 Employees who refuse to cross a lawful picket line established by a faculty bargaining unit at St. Thomas University who are on strike or locked out do so with the understanding that they will not be paid for any hours not worked as a result of this refusal. No disciplinary action will be taken as a result of this refusal.
- 6.06 When it appears evident that another bargaining unit at St. Thomas University or at the University of New Brunswick will either strike or be locked out, at the request of the Union, the Employer and the Local Union Executive shall meet forthwith and shall make every reasonable effort to establish a protocol agreement to address any overlap of duties and responsibilities with persons in the above-noted bargaining unit(s), and, or, concerns about crossing the picket line.

ARTICLE 7 JOINT CONSULTATION COMMITTEE

7.01 The Parties acknowledge the mutual benefits to be derived from meaningful and constructive joint consultation on matters of common interest.

7.02 The Joint Consultation Committee shall consist of three (3) representatives of the Union and three (3) representatives of the Employer. The Committee shall be jointly chaired, with co-chairpersons elected by each Party.

7.03 The Joint Consultation Committee shall meet upon request of either party, but at least bi-monthly, at a mutually agreeable time and place during normal hours of work. The Co-chairs shall consult in advance of the meeting to finalize the agenda and ensure that all members of the committee shall receive a notice and agenda of the meeting at least forty-eight (48) hours in advance of the meeting. An employee shall not suffer any loss of pay for Committee meeting time during working hours.

7.04 Grievances shall not be dealt with at joint consultation under this Article.

7.05 The Committee shall have no authority to modify the provisions of this Agreement.

7.06 Presidents' Meetings

The Union Local President and executive officers, PSAC representative(s) and the President of St. Thomas University shall meet at least semi-annually to provide an opportunity to communicate regarding matters of common interest. Such employees who participate in this meeting will do so without any loss of salary.

ARTICLE 8 INFORMATION

- 8.01 The Employer shall provide the appropriate authorized Union officers with the names, classification, work location, phone numbers (personal and work), work e-mail address, and home e-mail address (if available) of newly appointed bargaining unit employees upon hiring. This information is provided solely for the purpose of the Union exercising its duty of representation for employees.
- 8.02 The PSAC agrees to supply each employee with a copy of this Collective Agreement. The Parties agree to share the cost of printing this Collective Agreement.
- 8.03 The Employer agrees to provide the President of the Union Local of the PSAC with a copy of the Employer's current organization chart, with names and titles of all employees, including those excluded from the bargaining unit, and as amended from time to time.
- 8.04 The Employer will provide the President of the Union Local of the PSAC with a copy of, or access to, the following, as existing at the signing of this collective agreement and as amended from time to time:
- a) policies bearing on employee's employment;
 - b) a copy, including the full text, of all benefit and pension plans;
 - c) Board of Governors' documents which are public record and notice of Board appointments;
 - d) current job descriptions of persons in the bargaining unit; and,
 - e) copies of documents normally released to employees.

ARTICLE 9 USE OF UNIVERSITY'S FACILITIES

- 9.01 The Employer agrees to provide a reasonable amount of space on bulletin boards in convenient locations for the posting of official Union notices. The Union shall endeavor to avoid posting notices which the Employer, acting reasonably, could consider adverse to its interests.
- 9.02 The Employer agrees to permit Union representatives reasonable use of the University's phone and email system and agrees to post Union events and activities on the University's web notice board as requested.
- 9.03 The Employer will make available specific locations on the University premises for the placement of reasonable quantities of the Union's literature.
- 9.04 A duly accredited representative of the Union shall be permitted access, including a temporary parking pass at no charge, to the University premises to assist in the resolution of a complaint or grievance and to attend meetings called by management or the Union Local.
- 9.05 When practical, the Employer will provide a meeting room to the Local and PSAC so that it may carry out Local Union business.
- 9.06 The Employer agrees to provide the Local Union Executive, at no cost, with the use of a photocopier, for the reasonable requirements of the Local at times convenient to the operational requirements of the University.
- 9.07 When requested and subject to availability as determined by the Employer acting reasonably, the Employer shall provide suitable office space to the Local.

ARTICLE 10 EMPLOYEE REPRESENTATIVES

- 10.01 The Employer acknowledges the right of the PSAC to appoint or otherwise select up to five (5) employee representatives as shop stewards, exclusive of other employee representatives appointed as the Union's Local executive officers.
- 10.02 The PSAC shall determine the jurisdiction of each representative.
- 10.03 The Employer will recognize PSAC representatives on receipt in writing of their names, jurisdiction and effective dates of appointment.
- 10.04 A representative shall obtain the permission of their immediate supervisor before leaving work to investigate employee complaints or process a grievance or undertake any other union business during working hours. Such permission will not be unreasonably withheld. Where practicable, the representative shall report back to their supervisor before resuming their normal duties. The supervisor will be responsible for informing the Human Resources Office of time spent on such business.
- 10.05 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to ensure that new employees are introduced to a Local representative of the Union Local on their first day of work.
- 10.06 The Employer agrees to provide the President of the Union Local, or designate, and the new employee(s), at the time of their orientation, leave with pay of one (1) hour to acquaint the newly hired employee(s) with the facts that a collective agreement and a collective bargaining relationship exists between the PSAC and the University.

ARTICLE 11 GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

11.01 The Employer and the PSAC agree that discussions should occur between employees, the PSAC representatives and the Employer representatives, when problems, misunderstandings or differences arise, in an attempt to resolve problems or differences. This grievance procedure is not intended to preclude any discussion between employees, PSAC representatives and Employer representatives.

11.02 If any difference concerning the interpretation, application, administration, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement, including any question as to whether the matter is arbitrable, arises between the Employer and the PSAC, or between the employee(s) and the Employer, it shall be processed according to the following grievance procedure. Grievances involving the interpretation, application, administration, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement, including any question as to whether the matter is arbitrable, must have the approval and support of the Bargaining Agent as indicated by the signature of a Union Executive Officer or Steward. Such grievances and "Policy Grievances" shall normally be filed using the Grievance Form Template attached at Appendix E.

Nothing in this provision deprives employee(s) of any rights to which they are entitled in any legislation.

11.03 a) The time limits set out in the grievance procedure are mandatory and not directory. If the time limits set out in Step 1 or Step 2 of the grievance procedure are not complied with, then the grievance will be considered as being abandoned, unless the Parties have mutually agreed in writing to extend the time limits. A technical irregularity (defined as a clerical, typographical, or technical error) in specifying a grievance shall not nullify the grievance and it shall be heard and judged by the Employer based upon its merits. Non-compliance with time limits does not constitute a technical irregularity.

b) For the purposes of time limits set out in Article 11 (Grievance and Arbitration Procedure), "days" shall mean all days exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Designated Paid Holidays.

11.04 In the event a party fails to reply in writing within the time limits prescribed in this article, the other party may submit the matter to the next step as if a negative reply or denial had been received on the last day for the forwarding of such reply.

11.05 Employee(s) shall have the right to be represented at a complaint and at any step of the grievance procedure. The employee(s) and the Union Local representative shall be given leave with pay to attend such meetings. The PSAC shall be given full opportunity to present evidence and make representations throughout the grievance procedure.

11.06 On request of either party the other party shall provide access to all documents relevant to the grievance to provide for an open, fair and expeditious grievance process. This will not prevent either party from introducing any additional such material later in the grievance procedure or in the arbitration procedure, subject to objection on legal grounds from either Party.

11.07 COMPLAINTS, GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Complaints

It is the mutual desire of the Parties that all complaints and grievances will be dealt with as expeditiously as possible. On becoming aware of a matter giving rise to a complaint, the employee(s) and or the PSAC may at any time submit an oral or written complaint to the Employee's supervisor or the Director of Human Resources. Upon receipt of the complaint the Employee's supervisor or the Director of Human Resources shall meet with the employee and, if requested by the employee, the PSAC representative, in an attempt to resolve the complaint.

STEP 1:

If a complaint is not resolved satisfactorily, the employee(s) and, or, the PSAC representative may, within twenty-five (25) days of becoming aware of the matter giving rise to the complaint submit a grievance in writing, including the redress requested, to the Director of Human Resources. The Director of Human Resources shall convene a meeting and render a decision within ten (10) days of the receipt of the grievance.

STEP 2:

If a satisfactory settlement has not been obtained at Step 1, the employee(s) and, or, the PSAC representative may, within ten (10) days of the receipt of the Employer's decision under the Step 1, or failing receipt of the Employer's decision at Step 1, refer the grievance in writing, including the redress requested, to the Vice-President (Finance & Administration) designated as Step 2.

Within twenty-five (25) days of becoming aware of a matter giving rise to a grievance, the PSAC may submit a "Policy Grievance" in writing, including the redress requested, to the Employer representative designated as Step 2.

In either case the Vice-President (Finance & Administration) at Step 2 shall convene a meeting with the Union representative and, where applicable, the employee(s), and then render a decision within ten (10) days of the receipt of the grievance.

Arbitration

If the grievance is not satisfactorily settled under Step 2, then the grievance may be referred to arbitration by PSAC within twenty-five (25) days of the expiry of the time limits set out in Step 2.

The Parties agree that a single Arbitrator shall be used. The Employer and the PSAC shall make every effort to agree on the selection of the Arbitrator within ten (10) days after the party requesting arbitration has delivered written notice of submission of the dispute to arbitration.

In the event that the Parties fail to agree on the choice of Arbitrator, they shall forthwith request the New Brunswick Minister responsible for Labour to appoint an Arbitrator.

The Arbitrator shall have all the powers vested in it by the New Brunswick Industrial Relations Act, and, in the case of discharge or discipline, the power to substitute for the discharge or discipline such other penalties that the Arbitrator deems just, reasonable and sufficient in the circumstances, including compensation for lost income, benefits and any other damages. The Arbitrator shall render a decision within a reasonable period, as agreed to by the Parties. The Arbitrator shall remain seized until all issues related to the implementation of the Arbitrator's decision have been resolved.

The Arbitrator shall not amend, modify, alter, add to, or render a decision that is inconsistent with or incompatible with any of the provisions of this Agreement.

The Arbitrator's decision, including any decision as to whether the matter is arbitrable, shall be final and binding on both Parties.

Each party shall bear one-half (½) the costs of the Arbitrator.

Mediation

If mutually agreed the Parties, prior to the arbitration hearing, may either utilize the grievance mediation services of the New Brunswick Industrial Relations Branch or request the mediation services of the Arbitrator appointed in accordance with the procedures described above.

11.08 Expedited Arbitration

The Parties agree that, by mutual consent only, any grievance may be referred to the following expedited arbitration procedure. The Arbitrator shall be chosen by mutual agreement between the Parties.

Procedure:

- a) Grievances referred to expedited arbitration must be scheduled to be heard within ninety (90) days from the date of referral, unless the hearing is delayed by mutual agreement between the Parties or by the Arbitrator;
- b) the Parties shall make every reasonable attempt to proceed by admission and minimize the use of witnesses;

- c) whenever possible, the Arbitrator shall deliver the decision orally at the conclusion of the hearing, giving a brief resume of the reasons for the decision and then confirm these conclusions in writing within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- d) when it is not possible to give an oral decision at the conclusion of the hearing, the Arbitrator shall render it in writing with a brief resume of the reasons. The Arbitrator must render the written decision as soon as possible but at all times within ten (10) days of the date of the hearing;
- e) the decision of the Arbitrator shall not constitute a precedent;
- f) such decisions may not be used to alter, modify or amend any part of this Collective Agreement, nor should any decision be incompatible with the provisions of this Collective Agreement; and,
- g) such decisions from the expedited format shall be final and binding upon the Parties.

11.09 An employee who has a complaint or a grievance regarding the receipt of a specific order to perform certain duties shall, pending a final determination, continue to perform those duties assigned by the Employer (unless the employee has been suspended or discharged), providing such duties do not jeopardize the life, health or safety of the employee or any other person. If such duties do jeopardize the life, health or safety of the employee or any other person the employee has the legal right to exercise the right to refuse such work.

11.10 Employer Grievance

If the Employer has a concern about the interpretation, application, administration, operation or any alleged violation of the Agreement, the Employer may submit its concern to the PSAC through the President of the Union Local within twenty-five (25) days of becoming aware of the matter giving rise to the complaint. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the employer within twenty-five (25) days of the submission of the complaint, the Employer may refer the matter to arbitration in accordance with the procedures outlined in Article 11.07.

The President of the Union Local, or designated union representative, shall be given reasonable leave with pay to prepare for and to attend meetings regarding this concern.

ARTICLE 12 SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

12.01 No employee will be disciplined without just, reasonable and sufficient cause.

12.02 When an employee is required to attend a meeting, the purpose of which is to conduct an investigation or to render a formal disciplinary decision concerning that employee, the employee is entitled to have, at their request, a representative of the PSAC attend the meeting. Where practicable, the employee shall receive a minimum of twenty-four (24) hours written notice, including reasons, of such a meeting.

12.03 The employee(s) shall be advised of their right to have a union representative present at any formal disciplinary meeting or at any meeting held with employee(s) to investigate alleged misconduct of the employee(s).

12.04 Where it appears during any meeting with an employee that the nature of such a meeting must change to an investigation which could result in the formal disciplining of that employee, that meeting must be immediately terminated.

12.05 a) The Employer shall encourage supervisors to address concerns with an employee by utilizing non-disciplinary coaching methods before considering initiating any disciplinary action. However, the Employer may decide, acting reasonably, that coaching has been ineffective, or will not be effective, or is not appropriate due to the severity of the Employer's concerns.

b) In order of severity, the types of disciplinary action to be considered in a progressive manner shall be:

- oral reprimand
- written reprimand
- suspension
- discharge

12.06 When an employee is suspended from duty or discharged, the Employer undertakes to notify the employee, in writing, of the reason(s) for such suspension or discharge. The Employer will give such notification at the time of the suspension or discharge.

If the Employer does not give the written reason(s) for such suspension or discharge, the employee shall be deemed to be on leave with pay and benefits until the written notice is received by the employee.

If an employee is relieved from duty pending an investigation, the employee shall be on leave with pay and benefits until a final decision is rendered and delivered as a result of the investigation.

12.07 In cases of written reprimand, suspension or discharge, the Employer shall provide the Local President with a written record of any disciplinary action taken against the employee including the reason(s) for the disciplinary action. At the employee's request a copy of any related written report shall be forwarded under confidential cover to the Local President.

12.08 The Employer agrees not to introduce into evidence in a hearing relating to disciplinary action any document from the file of an employee, a copy of which the employee was not provided at the time it was placed in the employee's personnel file.

12.09 If an employee files a grievance against a written reprimand, suspension or discharge in accordance with Article 11 – Grievance and Arbitration Procedure, the Employer may postpone the imposition of the disciplinary action until the grievance is resolved.

12.10 Grievances relating to suspension or discharge shall be filed at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

12.11 Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action which may have been placed on the personnel file of an employee shall be destroyed after a period of eighteen (18) months has elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken, provided that no further disciplinary action regarding the same, or similar, matter referred to in this document or written statement, has been recorded during this period.

12.12 Whistleblowing Protection

No employee will be, or will be threatened with being, harassed, dismissed, suspended, laid off, penalized, disciplined, discriminated or retaliated against for, on the basis of a reasonable belief, making a complaint or giving information or evidence against the Employer with respect to any alleged violation of this Collective Agreement or any applicable Provincial or Federal Act or regulation.

The Employer shall not dismiss, suspend, lay off, penalize, discipline, discriminate or retaliate if the reason is related to an attempt by the Employer to evade any responsibility imposed upon the Employer, or to prevent or inhibit an employee from exercising any right granted to the employee, under this Collective Agreement or any applicable Provincial or Federal Act or regulation.

ARTICLE 13 NO HARASSMENT AND NO DISCRIMINATION

13.01 The Employer and the Union recognize the right of all persons to work and learn at St. Thomas University in an environment free from harassment and discrimination. The Employer and the Union are committed to working together in a constructive manner to help create and maintain a respectful workplace environment. The Employer undertakes to make every reasonable effort to ensure that harassment and discrimination will not be tolerated in the workplace and to ensure the timely and effective response to, and the resolution of, such incidents.

13.02 The Employer has developed a Harassment and Discrimination Policy in consultation with the Union and other stakeholders. For the purposes of this Article, the Harassment and Discrimination Policy outlines all applicable and relevant definitions and outlines the complaint process to be followed. In accordance with Article 3.03, the Employer will consult with the Union prior to revisiting this Policy.

Notwithstanding the above, for the purpose of this article, any other grounds of discrimination covered by the New Brunswick Human Rights Act or Canadian Human Rights Act will also apply.

13.03 There shall be no discrimination or harassment by reason of membership or activity in the PSAC. An allegation of such incidents is subject to the grievance procedure.

13.04 The Parties agree that harassment or discrimination complaints will be dealt with expeditiously by the Employer in accordance with the Harassment and Discrimination Policy. Any time limits in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

13.05 a) A breach of this Article or the Employer's application of the complaint process, including the timelines outlined in the Harassment and Discrimination Policy, are grievable under Article 11 – Grievance and Arbitration Procedure. Grievances relating to a violation of Article 13 – No Harassment and No discrimination shall be filed at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

b) The final disposition, including whether the alleged conduct falls within the scope of the Harassment and Discrimination Policy, and, or, any discipline of a respondent(s) for harassment or discrimination as a result of a complaint is grievable under Article 11 – Grievance and Arbitration Procedure. In this event, the Parties agree that Step 1 of the Grievance Procedure will be waived.

c) The timeline for the filing of a grievance by the employee(s) or Union does not formally commence until the Employer has informed the complainant(s), respondent(s), and Union in writing of the final disposition of the complaint under the Harassment and Discrimination Policy.

13.06 The Employer, Union, complainant(s), and respondent(s) will maintain all possible confidentiality throughout the complaint, investigation, and grievance process(es) except where disclosure is necessary for the purposes of investigating a complaint or grievance, or as required by law.

- 13.07 The Employer may take interim measures during an investigation process or the grievance process, including but not limited to temporary relocation, restructuring of supervisory relationships, and, or, requiring the individuals involved to not communicate directly with each other. The complainant(s), respondent(s), and, or, the Union may propose any such measures at any time during an investigation process. Every reasonable effort will be made to keep the individuals involved in the workplace. Where an employee cannot be maintained in the workplace or given alternative work assignments, such employee will be provided leave with pay pending the outcome of the investigation.
- 13.08 A Union representative and, or, an accompanying support person requested by an employee when participating in a procedure under this Article shall be granted time off with pay by the Employer. Such procedures should normally be held during the employee's normal working hours. Where this is not possible, the employee will be granted equivalent time off with pay at the applicable overtime rate. In either case, such time will be recorded on an appropriate leave form.
- 13.09 Retaliation, including threats of retaliation, against any employee who reports, witnesses or is involved in an investigation of an incident of harassment or discrimination in the workplace as referred to in this Article is strictly forbidden and will not be tolerated. A complaint that is unfounded does not necessarily constitute a complaint filed in bad faith.
- 13.10 The provisions of this Article are not intended to discourage or prevent employees from exercising any other legal rights under tribunals of competent jurisdiction, including the right to file a human rights complaint under the New Brunswick Human Rights Act.
- 13.11 Upon request, the Employer and the Local Union shall meet to discuss measures to improve the complaint and, or, investigative procedures. The Employer and the Local Union may make recommendations to the Parties with respect to any improvements which might require change(s) to the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 14 EMPLOYEE STATUS

14.01 Full-time Employee

A full-time employee is an employee who regularly works the normally required hours of work as established in Article 16 - Hours of Work.

14.02 Part-time Employee

A part-time employee is an employee who regularly works less than the normally required hours of work for a full-time employee as established in Article 16 – Hours of Work.

14.03 Sessional Employee

A sessional employee is a full-time or part-time employee hired for recurring sessional work for a duration with start and end months specified in the employee's letter of appointment. Sessional employees will be temporarily laid-off at the end of their work session and recalled for the subsequent work session as specified in the employee's letter of appointment.

A sessional employee, while working, is entitled to all applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement. The eligibility rules for the pension plan and employment benefit plans will apply where applicable.

While on temporary lay-off between sessions, eligible sessional employees will have the option to continue to receive health and dental, life, and accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) coverage on the applicable cost-share basis; the eligibility rules for the pension plan will apply where applicable.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, sessional employees remain subject to layoff in the ordinary course, in accordance with Article 32 – Layoff, Recall and Severance.

14.04 Contract Term Employees

a) A contract term employee is a full- or part-time employee hired for a fixed period of eight (8) months or greater for any of the following purposes:

- i) replacement of an employee who is on leave with or without pay;
- ii) term assignments;
- iii) non-recurring work; or,
- iv) special projects.

b) The need for a contract term employee is not expected to extend beyond the end of the fixed period and the employee's employment shall cease on the termination date specified in the employee's letter of appointment. An earlier termination date may result from an early return to duty as per Clause 26.01 i) of Article 26 – Other Leave With or Without Pay. A copy of the letter of appointment shall be provided to the Union Local.

b) The Employer will give a minimum of ten (10) days' notice before implementing a change to the employee's normal work schedule.

c) Before changing an employee's normal work schedule, the Employer shall consider the wishes of the employee concerned and shall consult in a meaningful and constructive manner with the affected employee(s) and the Local PSAC representative(s). In all cases following such consultation, the Employer will, where practicable, make every reasonable effort to accommodate such employee representations as may have been conveyed by the PSAC representative(s) during the consultation.

The Employer will pay overtime compensation on the next bi-weekly pay date, if possible, following the receipt of a complete and accurate overtime claim, and no later than four (4) weeks after receipt of the claim.
- 17.10 An employee shall have the option of banking up to a maximum of forty (40) hours of accumulated overtime during the fiscal year. ARTICLE 27 STAFFING PROCEDURE

- 27.01 The Employer shall post all vacancies and newly created positions in the Bargaining Unit (hereinafter referred to as an Employment Opportunity) and such employment opportunities will be open to all employees in the Bargaining Unit.
- 27.02 When an Employment Opportunity occurs for a position within the Bargaining Unit, the Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that a notice of the Employment Opportunity is delivered by email to every employee together with the job posting and position description. The posting shall include the information specified in Clause 27.03. Employees shall have a minimum of ten (10) working days to apply. The Employer will consider only applicants from within the Bargaining Unit including those on layoff status, and make a decision before advertising or considering applicants from outside the Bargaining Unit.
- 27.03 The job posting shall be posted for a minimum of ten (10) working days and shall contain the title and nature of position, the Requirements, the hours of work, the classification, level, and salary (including range, if applicable) of the Employment Opportunity. In this Article, "Requirements" means required knowledge, education, skills, qualifications, abilities and experience, language(s) (e.g., unilingual, bilingual or other), and any required license, certification or trades ticket. The Employer may consider an applicant with demonstrated abilities and experience in lieu of a Requirement(s) and, in such a case, the Employer shall so state on the job posting. The posting shall indicate the closing date and that prospective candidates are required to submit an application in writing, or by e-mail, no later than 4:30 p.m. on the closing date. The posting shall also contain a statement regarding St. Thomas University's commitment to employment equity for all equity groups.
- 27.04 The Requirements contained in the posting shall be fair, reasonable and relevant to the job description for the Employment Opportunity.
- 27.05 A copy of job postings for all vacancies for positions within the bargaining unit, and for all newly created positions both in and out of the bargaining unit, shall be forwarded to the Union Local two (2) days prior to posting. Upon request by the Union Local, the Employer shall meet with the Union to discuss any concerns with the job posting.
- 27.06 If there are no qualified candidates within the Bargaining Unit for the Employment Opportunity following the process outlined in this Article and an employee has applied who does not meet the requirements but has indicated in a covering letter that they could qualify following a reasonable period of training and experience, then that employee shall be considered for the Employment Opportunity. In the event there is no successful candidate within the Bargaining Unit for the Employment Opportunity following the process outlined in this Article, then an external search may be carried out and external candidates may be considered. By mutual consent of the Employer and the Union Local, an Employment Opportunity may be advertised externally at the same time as the internal posting, or the ten (10) working days required for the internal job posting may be waived.

- 27.07 Consideration will first be given to qualified non-probationary permanent employees. Candidates for the Employment Opportunity will be evaluated according to the posted Requirements as defined in Clause 27.03. This process shall normally include an interview with, and reference checks by, a selection committee. In filling the Job Opportunity, the position shall be awarded to the candidate receiving the highest rating according to this process; however, when the candidates are relatively equal, the candidate with the greatest seniority will be offered the position. If an employee does not accept the offer then the employee with the next highest rating, or when applicable the next greatest seniority, shall then be offered the job opportunity.

Mr. Mombourquette, Mr. Eddy:

In the matter of the Industrial Relations Act and in the matter of an Application for Certification between Public Service Alliance of Canada, Applicant, and St. Thomas University, Fredericton, NB, Respondent. (Board File No. IR-005-10)

The Board acknowledges receipt of a letter dated July 6, 2010 from Mr. Eddy, a copy of which appears to have been sent to Mr. Mombourquette.

Further to that letter, the Board has reviewed the Applicant's membership evidence and it appears that the Applicant enjoys the support of more than 60% of the employees in the agreed-upon bargaining unit, thus entitling the Applicant to Certification.

Your attention is drawn to s. 21 of the Industrial Relations Act, being c. I-4, R.S.N.B. 1973, concerning the effect of certification; to s. 32 which provides for the giving by either party of notice to commence bargaining with a view to the conclusion of a collective agreement; to s. 34 which provides for the time within which bargaining shall commence following notice; to s. 36 which provides that a request may be made to the Minister of Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour for the appointment of a conciliation officer; and to s. 37(3) which provides that each of the parties to a collective agreement shall forthwith upon its execution file one copy with the Minister of Post-Secondary Education, Training and Labour and with the Board.

Yours truly,
