

Part-Time Position in Fine Arts (EXTERNAL)

St. Thomas University invites applications for an instructor to teach the following course in Fredericton:

Semester 2 (January – April 2026)

FNAR-3613-A Music in Film & TV (T, Th 1:00-2:20 PM) This course will explore the ways in which music contributes to the overall audiovisual message. Films will be analyzed with a special focus on the relationship between the narrative, image, and sound; film will be understood both as a text and as an interpretive argument, with a special focus on the role that music, and sound in general, play in these discursive/rhetorical functions. The ultimate goal of the course is to develop an understanding of the technical and aesthetic issues involved in music-image synchronization and a critical aural and analytical habit for the soundtrack of films. (Maximum enrollment: 30)

St. Thomas University is an undergraduate, liberal arts institution with a full-time enrolment of 1,600. Its students graduate with Bachelor of Arts, Applied Arts, Education, and Social Work degrees. The faculty members are distinguished teachers, researchers and scholars, and the university holds two Canada Research Chairs.

A PhD in Music Composition, or imminent completion is preferred; a Master's degree and professional experience in film scoring is required. Each applicant is to submit a curriculum vitae, along with pertinent documentation (ex. teaching portfolio etc.) and arrange to have three letters of reference sent directly to Dr. Martin Kutnowski, Director of the Fine Arts Program, St. Thomas University, Fredericton, NB E3B 5G3. Electronic applications may be sent to martink@stu.ca

Closing date: June 16, 2025, or when the position is filled. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that their completed applications are received by this date.
